In Association with Andrew and Williamson (A&W) Fresh Produce ALDI Voluntarily Recalls Cucumbers

Batavia, Ill. (Sept. 9, 2015) – In association with our supplier Andrew and Williamson (A&W) Fresh Produce, ALDI is voluntarily recalling cucumbers sold from August 1, 2015, through September 3, 2015, due to the potential of the product being contaminated with Salmonella. Salmonella is an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems.

Upon notification from the supplier, ALDI immediately removed the affected products from our stores' selling floor. To date, ALDI has not received any reports of illnesses, but is initiating this voluntary recall in case customers have any affected product in their homes.

The recalled A&W cucumbers were sold in ALDI stores in:

- Arkansas
- Southern Illinois
- Iowa
- Kansas
- Minnesota
- Missouri
- Nebraska
- Oklahoma
- Texas
- Northwestern Wisconsin

At ALDI, we take the safety and integrity of the products we sell very seriously. If customers have product affected by this voluntary recall, they should discard it immediately or return it to their local store for a full refund. Customers with questions about the recall may contact A&W Fresh Produce by calling the company at (844) 483-3864.

We sincerely regret any inconvenience and concern this voluntary recall may cause.
