In Association with Aspen Foods
ALDI Voluntarily Recalls Kirkwood Raw Stuffed Broccoli & Cheddar and Raw Stuffed Cordon Bleu
Frozen Chicken Products

Batavia, Ill. (July 17, 2015) – In cooperation with Aspen Foods, a division of Koch Poultry Company, ALDI has voluntarily recalled Kirkwood Raw Stuffed Broccoli & Cheddar and Raw Stuffed Cordon Bleu frozen chicken products due to possible salmonella contamination. Salmonella is an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people and others with weakened immune systems.

Once ALDI learned of the Aspen Foods' recall, we immediately removed the affected products from our stores' selling floor. ALDI is initiating this voluntary recall in case customers have any affected product in their homes.

The recalled products are packaged in 5-ounce individual sleeves with the UPC codes 04198124229 (Broccoli & Cheddar) and 04198124205 (Cordon Bleu) with "best by" dates between 7/14/2016 and 10/10/2016.

No other ALDI products are affected by this recall.

At ALDI, we take the safety and integrity of the products we sell very seriously. If customers have product affected by this voluntary recall, they should discard it immediately or return it to their local store for a full refund.

We would like to remind customers that consuming raw or undercooked poultry can result in illness. When cooking instructions are properly adhered to, products will exceed the recommended internal temperature of 165 degrees, which is a high enough temperature to kill harmful bacteria, as measured by a meat thermometer.

Consumers who have questions about the above recall may contact Aspen Foods Consumer Affairs at (844) 277-6802, Monday through Friday from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Eastern Time.

ALDI sincerely regrets any inconvenience and concern this voluntary recall may cause.
