In Association with Ace Bayou Corp. Recall
ALDI Voluntarily Recalls Bean Bag Chairs Sold Between 2007 and 2013

Batavia, Ill. (Aug. 26, 2014) – In cooperation with Ace Bayou Corp., ALDI is voluntarily recalling bean bag chairs sold through July 2013 due to the potential for zippers on the chairs to be opened by children who can then crawl inside and suffocate or choke on the bean bag chair’s foam beads. ALDI is initiating this voluntary recall in case customers have any affected product in their homes. To date, the deaths of two children have been linked to recalled products.

The bean bag chairs were sold in ALDI stores as Special Buys in July from 2007 to 2013. The recalled chairs with zippers that open were sold in a variety of sizes and colors. “ACE BAYOU CORP” is printed on a tag sewn into the bean bag chair’s cover seam.

Bean bag chairs sold in ALDI stores starting July 6, 2014 are not affected by the recall, as these chairs include a safety enhancement.

At ALDI, we take the safety and integrity of the products we sell very seriously. If customers have product affected by this voluntary recall, they should check their bean bag chairs for any zippers that can open, take those that can open away from children immediately and contact Ace Bayou for a free repair kit to permanently disable the zippers so that they cannot be opened. Customers may also return the product to their local ALDI store for a full refund.

Customers with questions about the voluntary recall may contact Ace Bayou toll-free at 1-855-751-8151 from 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. CDT, Monday through Friday or online at www.acebayou.com, and click on “Recall Information” for more information.

ALDI sincerely regrets any inconvenience and concern this voluntary recall may cause.
