In Association with Wawona Packing Company Recall
ALDI Voluntarily Recalls Fresh, Whole Peaches, Plums and Nectarines

Batavia, Ill. (July 21, 2014) – In cooperation with Wawona Packing Company, ALDI is voluntarily recalling fresh whole peaches, plums and nectarines due to the potential of the products being contaminated with Listeria mynocytogenes.

The limited amount of fresh fruit affected by the voluntary recall was sold at select ALDI stores in New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Upon notification from the supplier, ALDI immediately removed the affected products from its stores' selling floor. ALDI is initiating this voluntary recall in case customers have any affected product in their homes. No illnesses have been linked to this recall to date.

The recalled fruit only includes fresh whole peaches (white and yellow), plums and nectarines packed between June 1, 2014 and July 12, 2014 and sold under three of Wawona's brand names: "Harvest Sweet," "Sweet 2 Eat" and "Wawona." No canned fruit or other ALDI products are affected by this recall.

At ALDI, we take the safety and integrity of the products we sell very seriously. If customers have product affected by this voluntary recall, they should discard it immediately or return it to their local store for a full refund.

Customers with questions about the voluntarily recall may contact Wawona Packing Company at 1-888-232-9912, Monday-Friday, 8am-5pm Eastern Time.

ALDI sincerely regrets any inconvenience and concern this voluntary recall may cause.
